Germain, dated Penjacola, Dec. 15. 1779.

VIAT a grievous mortification must it he to me to have to relate to your Lordhip, for my Sovereign's information, the conqueil of the Weltern part of this province; by the arms of Spain, in confequence of their early intelligence of the commencement of hostilities! Having in my dispatches of the 14th of September, prepared your Lordhip for the events which have followed. I finall refer for particulars to Licutenant-Colonel Dickson's letter to me of the 20th of October from New Orleans, to the articles of of the 20th of October from New Orleans, to the articles of capitulation between him and his excellency Don Bernardo de Galvez, Governor of Louisiana, at Baton Rouge, and day of September, to the lift he furnishes of the kill wounded and prifoners, and to a paper containing the rea-fons affigured by him for preferring Baton Rouge for a post whereat to make a stand, as comprising all the additional intelligence that appears to be requifite, of this unfortunate

I cannot help observing, that facts have demonstrated, that Spain had predetermined on a rupture with Great-Britain long before the declaration made on the 16th day of June last by their Ambassador at the Court of London; had laid their plans, and prepared all their Governors abroad for fuch an event; and it would appear, had even fixed on the day, or at least nearly the time, on which it was to take place; for we are here informed, that war was declared at Porto-Rico in a few days after the 16th of June. English veffels are known to be corried into the Havannah as prizes in the beginning of August last. And from New-Orleans I have the Governor's own asking-pladge-stant of be being apprized of the commencement of hostilities on the 9th day of August last: But how much earlier his intelligence of that August last: But how much earlier his intelligence of that August last. But how much earlier his intelligence of that event really was, is uncertain. However that be, it is now uncontroversibly known, that he has long ago been secretly preparing for war. That having previously collected the whole force of the province of Louisiana, the independency of America was publickly secognized by the beat of the drim at New-Orleans on the 19th day of August; and every thing being ready for that purpose, he immediately marched against our forces in the Mississippi; and he so effectually succeeded by the capture, by stratagem, of a King's floop in lake Pontchartrain, by the feizure of a schooner the river Miffiffippi on her way with turn and provisions for Manchack, and of fix other fmall veffels on the lakes and in Manchack, and or its other finall veffels on the lakes and in the river Amit, one of the last with troops of the regiment of Waldeck, and another with provitions, and by prevative precautions in ftopping any communication of intelligence of his movements being femt to this place; that he had nearly effected the reduction of the western part of this province, before we at Penfacola were apprized, or had the smallest communication of his having commenced hotilities; the in-formation of that event having only reached me on the 14th of September, as intimated to your Lordfhip in my letter of that date; and Lieutenant-Colonel Dicklon, it appears, was forced to capitulate on the 21st day of that same month.
Copy of a letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Dickson to MajorGeneral Campbell, dated New Orleans, October 20, 1779.

I SEND by Lieutenant Wilson, for your information, a copy of the journal which I kept ever fince the commencement of hollilities with the Spaniards. The dangerous and differenable fituation I was in ever fince that period will be fully related to you by him, and I hope will have the considerate on that I have od will be fully related to you by him, and I hope will in every particular juffify me, by convincing you that I have nied my utmost efforts, even to the last minute, against a great superiority of forces, with every other advantage an enemy could defire. I fend by Lieutenant Willon the capitulation in English, as proposed by me to his Excellency Don Bernardo de Galvez, and the original one in the French language, as smally concluded on between us. The terms are honourable to the troops and favourable to the inhabitants, and I hope will meet with your full approbation. Engineer Graham, who has obtained leave from his Excellency Don Beenardo de Galvez to go to Pensacola on private business, was very useful to me in drawing up the terms of capitulation, and since our arrival here, on many occasions, from his persect knowledge of the French language.

SIR,

from his perfect knowledge of the French language.

It it with pleasure I assure you, that all the officers and men under my command behaved exceedingly well, and did every duty they were ordered with great chearfulnels and exactness. Lieutenant Wilson and the detachment of the Royal Artillery, as well as the additional gunners, diffinguilhed themselves particularly, the day the enemy offered their batteries against the redoubt.

I must, in justice to his Excellency Don Bernardo de Galvez fay, that the officers and foldiers, who are prifoners of war at this place, are treated with the greatest generofity and attention, not only by the officers, but even the Spanish foldiers feem to take pleasure in being civil and kind to the prisoners in general.

I am, &cc. (Signed) ALEX. Dickson, Lieutenant Colonel 16th Regiment of foot.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION agreed upon and granted between his Eachlency Don Bernardo de Galvaz, his Catholic Majefly's Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province and Forces of Loufflans, and Alexander Dereson, Edg. Art. IV. His Excellency Don Bernado de Galvez shall provide the troops with a valid of 100 tous burden; or with two large boats, which shall not be fearched; and, in case of want, with a many more as shall be found accessary for conveying the wounded and fack, which shall be able to undergo the satisface of the voyage; and the other-fack and wounded that cannot be conveyed immediately, shall be permitted, as on as they are able, to join their regiments; and, in the mean time, his Catholick Majetty shall founds them with every affishance of which way shadd in need; Ans. The superiority of the troops under my command, as well as of my arms, ammunition, and provisions, together with the knowledge I have of the bad fituation in which the treops and the fart of Buton Rouge must be, from which all communication is out off, having taken every vusies coming from Penfacols with troops and provisions, as well as the arms of the first well protection, and from which yetleds there are already in town more than 150 prisoners of wate. All this will not fermit me the society to the proposition of not making prisoners of war the discill swops which are in the fort of Baton Rouge. I therefore politively require their fourendering themselves prisoners of war, but, confidering the honourable defence made by Licutemant-Colonel Dickfont, his officers and troops, they shall go out with druns decising, piecea charged, with colours sying, five hundred paces from the fort, where stops shall deliver the arms and relicons to the troops under my commands, and surrander themselves prisoners of war, to be eachaged at the pleasure of the King my malter; engaging at the same time, that they shall be permitted to wear their swords.—The fort at the Natchez, as depending on this, shall be evacuated and delivered up to me; and the garrison shall, have the liberty to retire to Profacola, Jamaica, of such other place under the government of his Britanoic Majety, as they shall judge proper.

What is contained in the above is to the considered as my answer to Jamaica, of fich other place under the government of his Britannoc Majerty, as they shall judge proper.

Lieutenant-Colonel Dickfin's Reasons for removing to Baton Rouge.

THE various reports, feemingly well founded, that the rebels were in force above, and meditated in a short ime an invasion of this part of the country, made it necesfary without delay to fix upon fone foot where works might be thrown up and fortifications creeked, so as to prevent, if possible, the troops under my command, and the country I was sent to protect, from falling into the hands of the enemy. The situation of Manchae was manimously condemned, and the fort there confidered as indefentible against can-non. Accordingly, on the 30th day of July 1779, agree-able to my own fentiments, and those of the ingineer and other officers I consulted on the occasion, it was determined to take post at Mess. Watts and Flowers's plantation at Baton Rouge, the fituation of which; and large quantity of cleared ground, pointing it out as the only place where I could have a reasonable prospect of accomplishing the intent of my command. I accordingly fent Engineer Graham. with a letter addressed to the inhabitants, requesting them to co-operate with me in throwing on a redoubt on that place, with which they cheerfully complied.

Having intelligence which I could depend upon, on the 3d day of September, that his Excellency Don Bernardo de Galvez was approaching in force to attack me, and that the redoubt at this place was in pretty good forwardness, it was determined, in a Council of War, to remove the troops, artillery, and stores, as soon as possible, to the redoubt, which was accordingly done. On the 12th day of September the redoubt was invested, and early in the morning of the 21ft a battery of heavy cannon was opened against it; and, after an incessant fire on both fides for more than three hours, I found myfelf obliged to yield to the great superiority of his artillery, and to surrender the redoubt to his Excellency Don Bernardo de Galvez, who commanded the troops of his Catholic Majefty.

I am confident I should not have been able to have made fo good a defence at Manchae, and of course to have-procured fuch favourable terms for the troops under my command, and the country I was fent to protect.

On account of the redoubts being erected thereon, Governor Galvez, confidering the plantation of Meff. Watts and Flowers as belonging to the King, has accordingly ta-ken it; and unless Government shall make them a recompence, by reason of their loyalty and readiness to promote the protection of the country, they will lofe a very valuable property; I therefore most strongly recommend them to Government for a generous satisfaction.

(Signed) ALEX. DICKSON, Lieutenant-Colonel.

I do hereby certify, That having been consulted by Lieutenant Colonel Dickson, when it was reported that the re-bels were coming down for to attack his Britannic Majelly's possessions on the Missisppi, it appeared to me, that in our actual circumstances, nothing better could be done than to creek a field redoubt in the clearing of Med. Watts and Flowers, who had been generous enough to offer the ule of the land provisionally for that purpose! And that hearing that the Spanish forces under Dun Bernardo de Galvez were coming to attack us, that it appeared to me that nothing elfe was left but to make our fland in the faid field redoubt, the stockade fort at Manchae being untenable against ean non.

From the London Papers, April 1. Hagur, March 27. When our last letters left Peter-urgh, the Prime Minister, Count de Panin, was thought to be at the point of death.

According to private letters from St Enstatia, they had there received letters of good credit from Jamaica, advising that General Dalrymple and Commodore Sir Peter Parkethad made themselves masters of Vera-Cruz, fituated in the Gulph of Mexico, and taken three Spanish ships, whose cargoes are valued at a million pounds sterling. Hague Gazette, Paris, March 20. A Courier Extraordinary arrived here yesterday from Brest, with the very agreeable news of the arrival of a sleet of merchantmen, which failed from St Domingo the 13th of January. This sleet confisting of 60 loaded ships, was escorted by the Tonnant of 80 guns, and the frigates Nymph and Active.

The above courier hath also brought advice, that the ships le Robuste, le Sphinx, and l'Amphion, of M. de Grasse's division, failed from St Domingo with the convoy, which they escorted through the Gulph, from whence they failed to Martinico. The ship le Fendans, commanded by M de Vaudreuil, which belonged to that divition, is left in Chesapeak-bay in America.

Summary of the Debares, yellerday at the East-India

House, Leadenball-firect.

A Court of Propietors having been summoned by adver-different, met yesterday, for the purpose of taking into consideration a Bye-law intended to exclude all persons who now have, or should hereafter possess contracts from Go-vernment, not taking at public bidding, from being chosen directors of the Company,

Sie William James, Bart. having taking the Chair, rofe to acquaint the Proprietors, on a question of such magni-tude as that which the Proprietary had now before them, his brethren in the direction had thought it necessary to take the opinion of the Council thereon, which he would now fubmit to them: These consisted of the opinions of the Attorney General, Mr Mansfield, Mr Dunning, and Mr Rons, the Company's own council. The clerk then read them sethe Company's own council. The clerk then read them feverally. The Attorney-General's opinion was, that no person who was possessed of 2000 l. a year India stock, being a member of the Company, and a native of Great-Britain, and if not a native, who had been legally naturalized, could be set assessed from the Direction, if chosen by the free vote of the Proprietors, by any act of the Company, which did not exist in their Charter. Sigued A. Wedderburne. The Solicitor's opinion was nearly the same, only superadding, that the Proprietors could not exclude from the direction by any act of their own, any person that was qualified as the any act of their own, any person that was qualified as the tenure of their Charter of the late King William expresses. Mr Dunning was nearly of the same opinion, but concluded with having some doubts on the matter. Mr Mansfield was of the same opinion with the Attorney General. Mr Rous differed from all the other learned gentlemen, by concluding, that if fuch a Bye-law passed at a regular meeting of the Proprietors in Court Assembled, it would be as valid and binding as any other laws made by the Company. The de-bate began by Mr Cuft observing, he thought the business had been very irregularly commenced at a Quarterly Court, when there are feldom more than thirty Proprietors present; and when it is unusual to bring forward any thing more than to read the recounts, &c. He hinted his suspicious that fuch an unprecedented motion being brought forward at this period, had for its object election purposes, which were near at hand. As to the worthy Baronet, who was not then pre-fent, and against whom it particularly feemed to militate, he was a man for whom the whole Proprietary had heretofore professed the warmest veneration; that their votes of thanks were the best test of his services, which he thought some late circumstances had not changed.

Mr Chrichton role to consider on the opinion of the several counsel, of which he had taken copies; but his animad-versions were rather replete with satyrical wit, than conviction of their impropriety: He reprobated the Attorney-General's, Solicitor-General's, and Mr Mansfield's opinions, as not coinciding with his own; passed some slight compli-ments on Mr Dunning, for his distinctee, and greatly ap-plauded the Company's own council Mr Rous, whose opiplauded the Company sown counciled with his own, as he was convinced the proprietary were equal to passing a legal byelaw of the present tener; he urged the necessity of excluding from the direction persons holding contracts from government, from a variety of reasons, and to prove that the proprietors might legally exclude them, he produced two byews made the beginning of the present century, one of which prevents the Directors from carrying on a trade, buy ing or fettling in the Company, and the other which disqualifies from fitting in the Direction all perform who are any way concerned in the shipping employed in the Company ny's trade; both which were confidered as legal, and complied with accordingly. Why then should not such a law, if it should pass that court, not be equally binding? As to the opinion of lawyers, he had known them contradict themrelieves. He told a flory in which himfelf was interefted, and was replied to by Mr Holford, who was of opinion the Company could not pass any such bye-law as was now attempted. He was followed by General Smith, who said, that for the good of the Company he had given the motion his hearty offer. his hearty affent, Mr Iones, a young couniel, followed on the fame ground. Mr Crichton proposed, that as doubts had arisen, the business should be postponed.

Mr Cust moved the previous question, which was seconded by Mr Moore, and other proprietors. At length the question being boldly cailed for, the Court was ordered to be cleared, and the Proprietors divided on the previous queflion, which passed in the negative. Mr Criciton's question was next put, and carried by a great majority. A motion was made to adjourn that, before it could be seconded, Sir Edward Williams role to beg that the apprictors, who were pretty numerous, would, before they departed, take into confideration, the prefent fituation of the Company with respect to their charter. He hoped fame method would be found to heat the prefent breach between the noble Lord and the Company, and that a more successful negociation might be opened, be had the Lompany's good very much at hearts, so had be that of his constry; and he wished the two parties, now so disjoined might be brough together. Mr Widmore proposed a motion, that the Chairmon and Deputy-chairman should wait upon Lord North the day before the meeting of parliament, to offer the following as a basis the meeting of parliament, to offer the following at a basis for an agreement: The term to be prolonged sourceen years; the Company to pay one million to the public within a year; after a divident to the Company of nine per cent. the public to take the next seven; then the Company one more, which would make ten, and, after that, an equal divinon of the further profit."—This, he hoped, might be agreed to by both parties, as it was a middle path. It was generally objected to by the Proprietors, to hold forth any farsher terms, but to wait to fee what time might produce. If the notice was given, it was probable a new parliament and a new minister would be of a different way of arguing to the present. The previous question was accordingly yed, which negatived the motion for commencing a fresh negociation.

It now growing late, and the Court having fat hear fix hours, a motion was made to adjourn, which patied, new. con. and the Court broke up.

SALE OF LANDS.

To be SOLD by private bargain,
THE Lands of WILLOWYARDS, in the parish of Beith, thire of Ayr.

The Lands confift of about one hundred and eighty English acres of The Lands confift of about one hundred and eighty English acres of arable ground, all inclosed and subdivided into eighteen fields, with a fine belt of planting surrounding the greatest part of the grounds. There is a good house and garden slocked with fruit trees, and an elegant court of offices newly crested. The lands are mostly laid down with clover and rye-grass in the finest order and high condition, having been under a course of improvement for some years past, limed and fallowed. There is a valuable stag and stone quarry opened, and it is believed there is coal and lime in the grounds; but both these articles are in such planty, and at hand, that no essay has been made for them.

These lands are very pleasantly situated along the side of Kilburny Loch, which abounds with pike and perch, are within half a mile of Beith, a post and market town, in the midst of the sik and thread manufactories, where the produce of the lands may be disposed of to the best advantage, being eight miles to the west of Paisley on the road to Irvine, and in the exact centre between Paisley and Irvine, Kilmarnock and Greenock.

The lands hold of the Earl of Eglinton, and pay an annual feu duty of ten merks Scots, are exempt from teind and multure, and are valued in the cess-books at one hundred and fourteen pounds Scots. The titleand the cens-noons at one manufed and nourteen pounds seeds. The time-deeds are clear, and the purchaser may have immediate possession of the whole premisses, excepting thirty acres, on which there is to run three years of a tack.

The lands will be shown by Baillie John Stewart in Beith, who is anthorifed to conclude a bargain.

N. B. If not fold before the 1st of May, the parks, which are all fencible and well watered, will be let for hay or pasture till the term of

THE Lands and Effate of SAINTEORD, lying in the parift of Forgan, and fiftee of Fife, pleasantly situated upon the fouth side of the rivet Tay, nearly adjoining to the public Ferry at Dundee, within six miles of St Andrews, and the same of Cupar, the county town. The whole of this effate consists of about 773 acres, mostly of good arm.

The whole of this estate consists of about 773 acres, mostly of good arable soil. There is a neat commodious mansion-house upon the lands, with suitable offices, in very good repair, a large well stocked garden, and an orchard. The purchaser may have immediate access to the mansion-house, offices, garden, orchard, and part of the adjacent inclosures, presently occupied by Mr Walker.

Upon the estate there is a great quantity of old full grown trees, besides very considerable young plantations in a thriving condition. The yearly free rent of the estate, after deduction of all public burdens, amounts to 340 l. 19 s. 1d. Sterling. Part of the lands are held blench of the Crown, and entitle the proprietor to vote in the election of a member of parliaments for the county; the remainder are held of a subject superior for payment of a trifling feu-duty.

There is an heritable right to the teinds of part of the lands; the tythes of most of them are valued by decreets of valuation as far back tythes of most of them are valued by decreets of valuation as far back as the 1637 and 1713, and the minister of Forgan having within these 40 years got a considerable augmentation of his slipend, there can no additional burden be supposed to affect the tythes for many years hence.
